Explosive Cyprus Has No Peace

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Chances for peace on Cyprus were so precariously balanced today that U.N. officials feared an insult shouted across no-man's land could shatter the truce.

And in Nicosia, emboldened Turkish Cypriots have been screaming insults across the sandbagged "green line" that divides them from the Greek Cypriot sector.

The Turkish Cypriot minority appears convinced the threat of renewed Turkish air strikes restrains Greek Cypriots from any ground attack.

Turkey called off its reconnaissance flights over the island Wednesday in response to a U.N. appeal, but warned it would not hesitate to strike if the cease-fire collapses.

In the northwest corner of the island, Turk Cypriots manned the tiny pocket of Kokkina, into which they were driven by Greek Cypriots before the week-end cease fire.

Despite the aerial threat, the Nicosia government is maintaining a ring of steel around Kokkina and U.N. observers fear renewed clashes.

Greek Cypriots vented their rage and frustration Wednesday by turning angrily on the United States and Britain, whom they accuse of siding with Turkey in the dispute.

Parliament President Glafcos Clerides drew shouts of approval when he cried that the time for talk was past. Only outright self-determination, under United Nations

Conviction Vindicates U.S. Agents

CHICAGO (AP)—U.S. Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan has hailed the conviction of Secret Service Agent Abraham Bolden as clearing the integrity of the U.S. Secret Service.

Bolden, the first Negro ever assigned to guard a U.S. president, was convicted and sentenced to six years in prison Wednesday of trying to sell government evidence in a counterfeiting case for $50,000.

He had charged that the government framed him because he planned to tell the Warren Commission about laxity and drunkenness among Secret Service agents assigned to guard President Kennedy in 1961.

"The verdict completely rejects the outrageous charges made by the defendant and confirms the public's belief in the absolute integrity of the U.S. Secret Service," Hanrahan told newsmen.

He said it was to Bolden's credit that he "apologized for the charges he made against the Secret Service and the government in general."

Bolden, 29, made his apology in a tearful plea for mercy after his conviction was announced and before sentencing in U.S. District Court by Judge Joseph Sam Perry.

Bolden wiped tears from his eyes as he stood before Judge Perry.

Judge Perry then sentenced Bolden to 6 years. He could have sentenced him to 25 years in prison and fined him $15,000 plus three times the amount of the $50,000 payment sought, a total of $165,000.

It was the second trial for Bolden, with the first ending in a hung jury.

He was convicted on three counts of attempted sale of Secret Service documents, obstruction of justice and conspiracy. He was found guilty of trying to sell a government file on May 12 to Joseph Spagnoli, alleged head of a counterfeiting ring.

Bolden joined the Secret Service in 1960. He was assigned to the White House guard in Hyannis Port, Mass., during June and July 1961.

Negro Cash Will Go to Goldwater

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—Seventeen St. Augustine restaurants under federal court order to integrate have served Negroes.

Teams of Negroes completed the testing Wednesday, and there were no incidents.

Cattlemen Get Drouth Relief Feed

Hempstead and Nevada are two of 13 Arkansas counties designated to receive an emergency feed grain program due to drouth, U. S. Senator J. William Fulbright telegraphed The Star from Washington today.

The 13 counties are: Conway, Crawford, Faulkner, Franklin, Hempstead, Johnson, Logan, Nevada, Pope, Scott, Sebastian, Sevier, and Yell.

The senator's message said that according to Department of Agriculture advisers:

"Farmers whose applications to the county ASC committee show financial hardship due to drouth may purchase government-owned feed grains for their livestock. I am glad this assistance will be available."

The senator's message was joined by a second one from Congressman Oren Harris to the same effect.

May Clear Road for Foreign Aid

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate leaders have worked out a compromise on a legislative reapportionment amendment and hope it clears the way for passage of the foreign aid authorization bill.

Action on the $3.3-billion foreign aid measure has been bogged down in dispute over the reapportionment issue, threatening to kill any chance for congressional adjournment before the opening of the Democratic National Convention Aug. 24 in Atlantic City.

The compromise amendment was introduced Wednesday night by Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen with Democratic leader Mike Mansfield as a cosponsor. They hammered it out in cooperation with top Justice Department aides.

It provides for delaying court-ordered reapportionment of state legislative seats, to allow a reasonable opportunity for state action, "in the absence of highly unusual circumstances."

The original amendment Dirksen announced he would offer as a rider to the foreign aid bill provided for delaying for as much as four years enforcement of a recent Supreme Court ruling that both branches of a state legislature must be apportioned on the basis of population.

Dirksen urged the delay to allow time for action on a constitutional amendment he and others have introduced to permit seats in one house of a state legislature to be apportioned on factors other than population.

Trigger-Happy Issue "Out" Says Barry

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater says President Johnson has shot down one campaign issue—the charge Goldwater is trigger-happy.

The Republican presidential nominee said the orders to the 7th Fleet in last week's North Vietnamese crisis could have been interpreted to mean the President was authorizing the use of nuclear arms.

The administration fired back with a statement from Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara that "Sen. Goldwater's interpretation is both unjustified and irresponsible."

The controversy began Wednesday at Goldwater's press conference at Hershey, Pa., where Republican leaders had gathered for a unity summit conference.

Goldwater also said he was far from satisfied with the President's actions in Southeast Asia and added "if the President will continue to listen to me, take my advice, we'll have less trouble."

In a New York speech to the American Bar Association Wednesday, Johnson said the U.S. course in Southeast Asia will not be diverted by political attacks at home. He said it has never been the policy of an American president "to systematically place in hazard the life of this nation by threatening nuclear war."

Child Goes Into Sewer But Escapes

WILLIMANTIC, Conn. (AP)—Mrs. Leo Racette watched in horror as her 9-year-old daughter, Rita, stepped from their stalled automobile and fell into swirling water that flooded the street.

Before anyone could help, Rita had been swept down a storm drain into a sewer. The onrushing rain waters carried her 75 feet underground and into the Willimantic River.

Three men saw the girl and two jumped in while the third held out a stick from the bank. Together they managed to get the child to land.

"God was good to us," said Rita's father Wednesday night after she was back safe and sound at their home in Springfield, Mass.

Biloxi First Mississippi Integration

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—Registration for the first desegregated public school classes in Mississippi will take place Friday in this Gulf Coast resort city.

Mississippi is the last state to topple classroom racial barriers below the college level.

There was no estimate of how many Negro children would seek to register for first grade classes at nine previously all-white schools under federal court orders. Actual classroom work doesn't start until next month.

School and local officials plan to keep a tight security barrier around the schools, in an effort to keep down violence.

The same court order which opened the first grade to Negroes here also directed the school systems of Jackson, the state's capital and largest city, and rural Leake County, birthplace of segregationist former Gov. Ross R. Barnett, to accept Negroes.

Desegregation under the court order will reach the second grade next year and continue upward on a grade-a-year basis.

Biloxi, site of Keesler Air Force Base, has been free of the racial discord which has swept other areas of the state recently.

In Leake County, three Negro schools began activities Monday. The county's five white schools don't open until Aug. 28. Negro leaders complained that the Negro schools were started earlier than the white schools to discourage integration attempts.

Rural schools in the state frequently begin classes in mid-August and suspend operations temporarily during the height of the cotton harvesting season later in the fall.

Autumn Weather Moves Across United States From the West to East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A huge mass of cold air from Canada, fanned by stiff northwesterly winds, covered wide areas from the Dakotas to the Atlantic Coast and southward nearly to the Gulf region today.

The autumn-like weather in midsummer was in sharp contrast to the abnormally high temperatures in many areas last week. Temperatures in some sections headed for record low marks for Aug. 13.

The mercury slid into the 30s for the second day in a row in parts of the Northern Plains and into the 40s as far south as the Ohio River.

A frosty 32-degree reading chilled Brookings, S.D., and it was 33 at Fargo and Devils Lake in North Dakota.

Bismarck, N.D., registered 35 and it was 37 at Duluth, Minn. Vandalia, in south-central Illinois, was given a 40-degree cooling.

The 45 reading in Waterloo, Iowa, was the lowest mark for Aug. 13 since 1916. Louisville's 49 temperature was a record low for the date and compared to a reading of 51 in Anchorage, Alaska.

In the West, heavy rain hit the normally arid sections of Arizona and New Mexico. Flood waters swept across Winslow, a town of 9,000 in northern Arizona, forcing evacuation of 17 patients in the Winslow hospital by National Guard troops. Some 20 families were evacuated from a south side residential district. About 100 homes were reported damaged by the flood waters. The floods followed Wednesday's heavy rain, with about three inches reported in a one-hour period.

Rains also fell in southern Arizona and caused minor flooding in downtown sections of Florence and Casa Grande, about 60 miles from Phoenix. In the Southeast, a thunderstorm dumped nearly three inches of rain on Columbus, Ga., in a two-hour period. Twenty-five persons were evacuated from their homes in low-lying areas.

Showers fell in some parts of the cool belt in the Great Lakes region and in New England.

Mercury Drops to 45 in State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Record low temperatures hit Arkansas today in the wake of a cold front that moved through the state Tuesday night and Wednesday.

Gilbert in north Arkansas was perhaps the coolest spot in the state this morning, with 45 degrees. Nearby Calico Rock reported 48 degrees.

Fort Smith's previous record low of 61, set in 1931, was shattered by a 57. Little Rock had 58, four degrees below the 1931 and 1960 previous low marks. Memphis had 58, the previous low being 61 in 1942.

The outlook for Friday is for more cool weather, with minimum readings from the low 50s to mid 60s predicted. Maximum daytime temperatures will be mostly in the 80s Friday, with a slight warming trend due over the weekend.

Maximum readings Wednesday ranged from 76 at Memphis to 90 at Fort Smith.

The passage of the cold front virtually halted rain activity.

How to Kill a Bear: This Man Knows

WARROAD, Minn. (AP)—Andy Streiff tells how to kill a bear: "Shoot him three times after he is dead. Then wait five minutes before you go up to him."

Streiff is recovering today from a recent encounter with a 250-pound bear. At 216 pounds, Streiff wasn't too badly out-matched except for the teeth and claws.

He came across the bear while on his truck route, picking up farmers' milk. He shot the animal and it went down and appeared lifeless.

But when Streiff approached, bruin became a black whirlwind. Streiff took him on in a wrestling match but was ripped across the stomach, had a mangled and broken left hand and a chewed leg before he managed to grab his rifle and kill the bear.

Operation Unneeded by Kennedy

BOSTON (AP)—Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., will not require an operation on his back which was broken in a plane crash June 19, a team of doctors said today.

Dr. Herbert D. Adams, surgeon in chief of New England Baptist Hospital, said the youngest brother of the late President John F. Kennedy is making "excellent progress, a really remarkable recovery."

The doctor said, however, that Kennedy will have to spend six months in the stretcher-like frame in which he is immobilized. He has been in an orthopedic bed ever since the accident.

Dr. George Hammond, an orthopedic surgeon, estimated that sometime in January, Kennedy will be able to return to "adult activity."

Zsa Gabor Puts on Fine Show

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"I'm a Hungarian freedom fighter," shouted Zsa Zsa Gabor, "and I'm going to fight."

Looking beautifully ferocious, Zsa Zsa stormed the City Hall Wednesday.

Why, she demanded, had the city torn down her three chimneys and filled her Olympic-size swimming pool with sand? "They didn't tell me about it," said Zsa Zsa. "I was in Europe."

The chimneys and pool were all that remained of her $1-million hilltop mansion in the plush Bel Air section of Los Angeles after a disastrous brush fire swept the area in 1961.

The City Department of Building and Safety said it had given Zsa Zsa three orders since last February to have her property cleared. The pool and chimneys "endangered life and property," said the city.

"I have hired architect Paul Williams to design a new house for me," Zsa Zsa told the Building and Safety Commission. "We were going to use the chimneys and pool."

But the city, after granting the extensions, let a $2,780 contract to have the property cleared last Tuesday.

"They did it in two hours," said Zsa Zsa. "I wish I got paid $2,800 for two hours work."

She said the city owes her $20,000 and added that she was going to sue.

She was even mad at her lawyer, Paul Caruso, when he showed up late.

Later, she told newsmen: "I worked hard for what I have. I lost $1 million when that house burned, and it wasn't insured. I had paid the city $500,000 in taxes on that property, and not a single fireman showed up when it was burning. Not one."

"I'm not going to let them do this to me now—even if I have to start studying law to stop them."

"They're going to hear more of my Hungarian mind."

APL Offers Swap Deal to Helena

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas Power & Light Co. proposes to build a $50 million power plant here if it can lease the city's electrical distribution facilities.

Mayor R. E. Eden said Tuesday the proposal was made by AP&L last week and the city has hired a consulting firm to evaluate it.

Eden said the plant would have an annual payroll of about $350,000. He said the city would receive annual privilege taxes of four per cent of gross residential and commercial revenues and more than $1 million annually would be paid directly to the city, the county and school districts.

An AP&L spokesman said the firm had asked the privilege of presenting to West Memphis "a major industrial proposal" involving lease of its electrical distribution system.

2nd Day of Race Riots in New Jersey

By CHRIS MINICLIER

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP)—Youths armed with gasoline bombs, bottles, rocks and bricks rioted in a multiracial neighborhood of Elizabeth and smashed car and store windows in a Negro district of Paterson Wednesday night and early today.

Helmed policemen with nightsticks restored order in both cities early today. It was the second night in a row in which violence broke out in the two northern New Jersey cities about 20 miles apart.

Elizabeth police tore into a crowd of young Negroes shortly before 2 a.m., subduing some of the youths with sticks, firing into the air, and making arrests. The brief battle followed bombing of at least three police cars with bottles, near misses on several motorcycle police, a flaring gas bomb that lit up an intersection and the explosion of firecrackers.

Elizabeth hospitals reported treating eight persons for minor injuries. About a half-dozen Negroes and whites were injured in Paterson, but none was hospitalized.

tions shelter, would satisfy the island's 400,000 Greek Cypriots, he said.

Blasting the Turkish air attacks, Clérides said "nobody can believe the responsibility rests solely with Turkey."

"Nobody can believe that Turkey would dare launch such attacks, with NATO planes, without the consent of these two countries—the United States and Great Britain."

An offshot of the anti-American campaign was the refusal of Greek Cypriots to accept from the United States 2,000 pints of blood plasma flown here at the request of Archbishop Makarios, the Greek Cypriot president.

Some Nicosia newspapers charged that the plasma was so old its use could be fatal.

An Embassy spokesman said the plasma, of the same type used by the U.S. armed forces, has a standard warning on the label that if it becomes cloudy after shaking it should not be used.

Greek Cypriot authorities said the first 3 of 23 bottles handed over to them turned bad. They then refused to accept the rest of the shipment.

Despite the attitude of the Greek Cypriots, diplomats in Nicosia, Athens, Istanbul, Geneva, London, Washington and the United Nations were working to make advantage of the present cease fire to reach some kind of agreement.

Spyros Kyprianou, Cypriot foreign minister, returned to Nicosia this morning after emergency talks with the Greek Cabinet.

Kyprianou reported: "It was decided that any Turkish attack should be faced jointly. In such an eventuality, Greece with all her forces will stand by the side of fighting Cyprus."

manders should have more "leeway" in use of weapons, was asked at his news conference about charges he is trigger happy with tactical nuclear power.

Said Goldwater: "I think the President has somewhat removed it (the charge) by impulsive action no one has condemned, by telling subordinate commanders to use any weapons necessary, which pretty much removes any criticism of what he could make of what I supposedly have stood for."

A week ago Wednesday, the day after the President ordered naval air strikes against North Vietnamese PT boats and their bases, McNamara was asked at a news conference what orders U.S. ships were operating under in the Gulf of Tonkin.

He replied: "Our orders to the commanders are to continue their patrols, to protect themselves against aggression on the high seas with whatever force is necessary."

A reporter asked Goldwater, "could you amplify the remark you made? Do you mean that the President has given field commanders the right to use any weapons including atomic weapons?"

"I would suggest you read his admonition to the commander of the 7th Fleet in which he said to use any weapons," Goldwater said. "I think I know what he means."

"But I also know what I meant when I said that the supreme commander of NATO should have more say-so in the choice of tactical nuclear weapons."

"It's not to give him the ICBM, the IRBM, it's merely tactical weapons and I imagine that these people — though I don't know — in the Pacific have the right to use these weapons if the commander feels it's necessary."

Romney flew home to Lansing from the Hershey meeting Wednesday night and issued a brief statement that offered no personal endorsement of the Arizona conservative's presidential candidacy.

Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton was host for the Hershey meeting, but he wasn't a very talkative one when it was over. "Both the approach made and the feeling engendered was very good," he said.

One governor who had withheld his support — John H. Reed of Maine — was quoted as saying he's now behind the ticket.

Goldwater told a news conference his unity drive is three weeks ahead of schedule. He said the party is as solid now as he had hoped it would be by Sept. 1.

"We know, I believe, only two senators and a few congressmen on the reluctant list," he said.

Among them: Sens. Kenneth B. Keating and Jacob K. Javits of New York. They were not at the Hershey session, and neither indicated his stand has changed.

"They're free and 21 and they can do what they want to," Goldwater said of the New York senators.

Anniversary of Berlin's Great Wall

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

BERLIN (AP) — West Germans paid homage today to the memory of 53 persons who died trying to flee across the Communist wall that has divided East Berlin from West Berlin for the past three years.

Mayor Willy Brandt laid wreaths on memorials along a part of the 26-mile wall on its third anniversary. He also honored 52 other persons who paid with their lives attempting to cross the Iron Curtain border between East and West Germany.

East German border guards, showing signs of nervousness, fired 160 flares during the night. The flares are used to illuminate the wall. Police said the guards appeared to be in a state of alert.

West German police were ready for a possible riot similar to one that broke out at last year's anniversary.

Brandt placed the wreaths on simple wooden crosses bound with barbed wire in tribute to four of the victims who attempted to breach the wall three years ago.

Nearly 20,000 persons have broken through the barriers to freedom since the wall was begun on Aug. 13, 1961. There were no reports of escaped today.

Another part of the observance was to be an hour of silence tonight. All public transportation will halt.

Erected by the Communist regime to stem the mounting flow of refugees to the West, the wall has become a bitter symbol of a city, and a nation, divided by concrete and barbed wire.

"The wall is against the stream of history, against the precepts of humaneness, against the right to self-determination written in the United Nations Charter, against the securing of peace," West German Mayor Willy Brandt said Wednesday night in a radio and television broadcast addressed to both East and West Germans.

The mayor declared: "We want to unite in thought — we want to unite in action — we want to unite in the struggle for the wall which divides us but nevertheless has not torn us apart."

Brandt said the hour of silence "will be a sign to the whole world that we will not compromise with the wall but that we will overcome the senseless separation to serve a reasonable peace."

The Communist press, which calls the wall a justified defense against a fascist invasion, has charged that Brandt's appeal could result in setback to thus far unsuccessful negotiations to permit West Germans to pass through the wall and visit their relatives in East Berlin. The Reds say observance of the wall's third anniversary is de-

During observance of the wall's second anniversary, an angry crowd of West Berliners clashed with police in a demonstration of hatred against the wall. Police fought with some 1,500 rioters who tried without success to reach the wall at one of its crossing points.

Last Christmas thousands of West Berliners surged into East Berlin for joyous and tearful family reunions.

Mrs. James Larry Arnette

In a candlelight ceremony on Friday evening, July 31, at 7:30, Miss Terry McMannus became the bride of James Larry Arnette at the First Methodist Church of Hope with the Rev. Robert B. Moore, Jr. officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McMannus and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Arnette, all of Hope.

An altar enhanced with basket arrangements of white stock and white Kelleen daisies backed by three pairs of candlebras holding white tapers, huckle berry and salal foliage, provided an appropriate and beautiful setting for the double-ring ceremony. Each pew in the center aisles was decorated with white satin bows and greenery. The nuptial music was presented by Mrs. B. C. Hyatt, church organist, and Miss Joy Highfill, soloist, who sang, "All for Love," "I Love you Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer," during the ceremony when the couple knelt at the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Duclet satin designed with a fitted bodice, long lily point sleeves and a scooped neckline. The dome shaped skirt was accented with re-embroidered swiss lace motifs and fell into a full chapel train in the back under a large Abi bow. A crown of pearl embroidered lace held a tiered veil of silk illusion. She wore a diamond drop, a gift to her by the groom and carried a cascade bouquet of white jewel roses, velvet maiden hair fern and tulle.

Miss Cookie Jones was maid of honor and Miss Sharon McMannus, aunt of the bride, Miss Kandy McMannus, cousin of the bride, Worthington, Ohio, were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were identical street length of powder blue crystal silk, fitted bodices and brief sleeves. The back interest in their bouffant skirt was a bow with long streamers and in their hair they wore matching veiled coils and carried bouquets similar in design to that of the brides of supreme reed daisies and salal leaves.

Kenneth Paddle served as best man. J. C. Williams, uncle of the groom, Delton Hatfield, brother-in-law of the groom and Jimmy Fincher, cousin of the groom, all of Hope, served as groomsmen.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. McMannus chose an autumn rose French crepe dress with accessories of a darker

Orioles and Yanks Win Their Games

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Mickey Mantle and Sam Bowens. Each of them hit two homers and made the headlines in the American League Wednesday.

Result: The first place Baltimore Orioles increased their lead to two games over the Chicago White Sox while the New York Yankees remained 3½ games back.

Mantle, veteran Yankee outfielder, hit a tape-measured homer of just over 500 feet and one of 350 feet in the Yankees' 7-3 triumph over the White Sox.

Bowens, rookie outfielder for the Orioles, connected for homers of 375 and 425 feet in Baltimore's 7-0 shutout over the Boston Red Sox.

Mantle's long clout came in the fourth inning off Ray Herbert and was the first to be measured at Yankee Stadium.

The ball went into the center field bleachers over a screen 22 feet 5 inches high at the 461-foot mark. It landed 15 rows up and Danny O'Sullivan, assistant stadium superintendent, said it traveled just over 500 feet on the fly.

It was the third time a homer has been hit in that sector. Larry Doby of Cleveland did it in 1949 and Mantle 10 years ago. This latest Mantle homer, No. 443 of his career, compares to his estimated 600-footer last year against the right field facade in the Stadium and his measured 565-footer in Washington in 1953.

In other AL games, Los Angeles defeated Cleveland 4-2. Detroit downed Minnesota, 6-2 and Washington edged Kansas City 4-3.

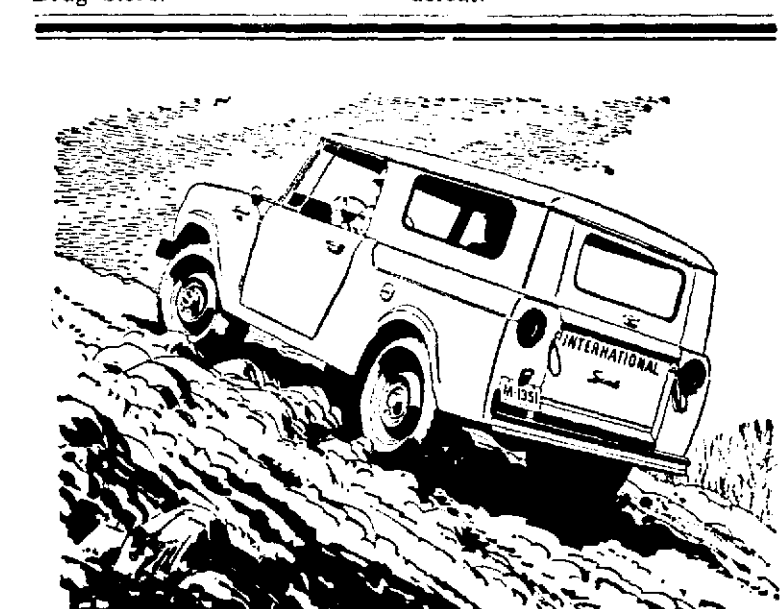

Philadelphia upped its National League lead to four games by beating the Chicago Cubs 6-5 coupled with San Francisco's 6-4 defeat by St. Louis. Sandy Koufax won his 18th as the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped Cincinnati 4-1. Milwaukee downed Houston 5-1 and Pittsburgh edged the New York Mets 5-4.

Rookie pitcher Mel Stottlemyre shared the spotlight with Mantle for the Yankees as did veteran Milt Pappas with Bowens for the Orioles.

Stottlemyre, a righthander up from Richmond of the International League, pitched a seven hitter and issued only one walk against the White Sox in his first major league start. Pappas yielded only five hits to the Red Sox in recording his fourth shut out of the season.

Jimmy Piersall celebrated the birth of his ninth child by leading the fourth place Los Angeles

Kid Pitcher Good News for Yanks

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The lift the New York Yankees have been waiting for virtually all season finally may have arrived.

It came — at least for one day — Wednesday from two sources. One was wholly unexpected. The other was from the most natural of all sources.

The unexpected pickup was supplied by a kid pitcher named Mel Stottlemyre, who got his first look at the big city only the day before.

Brought up from their Richmond Va. farm club, the 22-year-old right-hander, in his first big league start, pitched the Yankees to a 7-3 triumph over the Chicago White Sox. He allowed seven hits and only one base on balls.

And for the first time in seven games, the Yankees gave their pitcher ample batting support. The pace-maker, as might be expected, was Mickey Mantle, who smashed two home runs and a single and scored three times. Cleo Boyer and Roger Maris also homered for the Yanks.

One of Mickey's blows, the first, was a Yankee Stadium record-breaker. Hit off right-hander Ray Herbert in the fourth inning, the drive cleared the screen in dead center and landed 15 rows up in the bleachers. The drive was estimated at 500 feet. Only one other ball ever has been hit in that specific sector. The author of that other blow was Mantle, of course.

Even Mickey was impressed by that gigantic wallop.

"I never expected to travel that far," he said. "In fact, I thinking it was just a big out. Then I saw Stephens (center fielder Gene Stephens) turning around and running as hard as he could. I still didn't believe it would clear the wall."

Angels to their triumph over Cleveland. He singled home two runs in the second that broke a 11 tie and later scored the last Angel run. He went 3-for-5 and also stole a base.

Harmon Killebrew, the major league leader, hit his 40th homer for Minnesota, but Bill Freehan's threerun roundtripper for Detroit more than offset this in the Tigers' triumph.

Jim King's two-run homer in the eighth inning scored the tying and winning runs in Washington's win over Kansas City. It was the A's seventh straight defeat.

Baltimore Hopes for Fast Start

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP) — Don Shula hopes to get his Baltimore Colts out of the gate in a fast start despite the retirement of Gino Marchetti, the perennial all-National Football League defensive end.

Don Thompson, a 6-foot-4½ 240-pounder in his third year of pro ball, must fill Marchetti's shoes if the Colts front four is to hold its own with the other powers. If Thompson doesn't make it, Shula will have to do some fast shuffling, perhaps moving Fred Miller to the outside.

Shula was new to the club himself last year, his first as head coach. He also had to fit eight rookies into the 1963 squad. Veterans will man most of the key positions this season. "Johnny Unitas is throwing real sharp," said Shula. "He started slowly last year but he was fantastic in the second half. Units is just the best quarterback in football. And that goes for everybody."

"We'll be better off on offense from the start. A year ago we didn't know John Mackey was as good as he is. We didn't have a fullback until Jerry Hill got going. Raymond Berry and Jimmy Orr were out and Lenny Moore missed half the season. "Tom Matie did a whole of a job at Moore's position. We can count on him. Whatever we get out of Moore will help. We also are counting on help from Tony Lorick, our No. 2 draft choice from Arizona State."

Lorick at fullback and Ted Davis of Georgia Tech at line-backer are the newcomers with the best chance to fight their way into starting positions.

Unitas has his favorite target, Berry, in action at split end and Mackey, touted as "a new Mike Ditka," at tight end with Orr at the flanker. Hill at fullback and Matie or Moore at running back. Willie Richardson backs up Orr and Gary Cuzzo is the second quarterback.

With Jim Parker an all-league ace, at left guard the front offensive line is intact. Bob Vogel and George Preas man the tackles. Parker and Alex Sandusky are the guards and Dick Szymanski is at center.

Defense may present more of a problem to Shula's personnel. The return of Billy Ray Smith, who sat out last year, strengthens one tackle spot, with Miller at the other. Orrell Braase will be at his old end job. Marchetti's position is the problem.

Indianapolis Defeats Travs 5-2

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Indianapolis cracked 12 hits off a trio of Arkansas pitchers here Wednesday night to take a 5-2 Pacific Coast League victory.

Carl Bouldin, the winning hurler, held the Travelers to six hits and two unearned runs.

The Travelers' starter, Rick Quiroz, went out in the second inning, when Indianapolis got four runs, helped by a homer by Gary Johnson. Reliever Paul Brown lasted until the seventh, when he had to have help from Jack Kerrigan.

Bill Heath hit a bases-loaded single in the first frame to bring home the Arkansas runs. A previous error made both unearned.

Denver Gets Win Over Oklahoma

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Denver Bears opened up with five runs in the first inning, but the Oklahoma City 89ers rallied and went on to win, 11-8, in a Pacific Coast League game Wednesday night.

Meanwhile, Arkansas, tops in the Eastern Division, lost to Indianapolis 5-2.

The 89ers' victory, coupled with the Travelers' loss, left the second-running 89ers five games out of first place.

Dallas blanked Salt Lake City 1-0, Seattle swept a doubleheader from Portland, 3-1 and 6-5, Spokane edged Tacoma 4-3 and Hawaii punted San Diego 6-1.

Oklahoma City blasted six Denver pitchers with 13 hits. The winners' Ernie Fazio doubled and homered to drive in three runs, Glenn Vaughan brought in three more with three hits, and Jim Beauchamp slugged a solo homer. Tommy Aaron and Ethan Blackaby banged home runs for Denver.

Indianapolis scored five runs in the first and four in the second. With Gary Johnson's homering, Carl Boudin was the winning hurler, giving up six hits and strikeout 10.

Dallas produced only two hits, but that was enough for the 1-0 victory. Dan Pfister held Salt Lake to four hits for his second win since returning from Kansas City. The ranger's lone run came on a walk, a sacrifice, an infield out and a wild pitch.

Guido Grilli gave up only five hits as Seattle beat Portland in the first game. Willie Tasby accounted for Portland's lone run with a homer.

In the nightcap, Seattle led 5-1 after two innings and then stayed off a late Portland bid.

Spokane staged a two-run uprising in the 1st of the 11th for its victory. Burt Shirley singled, moved to second and scored on Jim Barbieri's double. Then Jim Lefebvre singled home Barbieri. Reliever Ken Rowe picked up the victory.

The Hawaii Islanders posted their fourth straight victory over San Diego. The Western Division leaders. The triumph cut the Padres' lead to 3½ games over second-place Portland. Pat Rogan was the winning hurler.

HERE ARE SIX LIFE SAVERS FOR EVERY MOTORIST

Information

SIGNS OF LIFE—It would pay every driver to study these six highway signs—the uniform shapes—for five minutes and learn to identify them by their shape. It would pay him, too, to heed and obey them every time he sees them. They are put up for only one reason—to save his life. From left to right, they are: YIELD—an inverted triangle which means "yield right of way." REGULATION—a vertical rectangle which calls attention to a vital road regulation such as "No Right Turn." WARN-

ING—a diamond-shaped sign which means a warning of some kind, such as "Slow, children" or "Divided Highway." RAILROAD CROSSING—A circular sign which warns of a railroad crossing just ahead. Remember—trains do still run, and they rarely lose a race with a car to a grade crossing. FULL STOP—an octagonal-shaped sign which always means "Stop!" INFORMATION—a horizontal rectangle which gives information, such as "Road Closed" or "Junction." In addition to these basic signs there are, of course, shields which carry route numbers, school zone signs and others. Obey the signs and you'll live longer!

OMIGOSH!—Why are these beauties grinning? An auto accident? A pack of unruly mice? No, just a bullfight at Palma de Mallorca, Spain. Monica Ragby (left) of Sweden, "Miss United Nations 1963," and her successor, Susan Holmquist of Denmark register suitable expressions of horror. The bullfight took place in honor of the contestants in the International Beauty Contest.

LBJ Vows Civil Rights Enforcement

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
NEW YORK (AP)—President Johnson told the American

Bar Association today he will even force the civil rights law; citizens must observe it—regardless of demonstrations in the streets and violence in the night.

In a city where racial disorder erupted recently in Harlem and Brooklyn, Johnson pledged that:

"We will not permit any part of America to become a jungle, where the weak are the prey of the strong and the many."

While speaking of maintaining law and order among American citizens, Johnson also stressed in his prepared address that "we work for peaceful process among nations," and for the defense of freedom "because it was right that we should."

But he beckoned to America's allies to lend a strengthened hand and he upheld the administration's over-all policy in Viet Nam—a policy that has drawn the fire of Sen. Barry Goldwater. Republican presidential nominee.

Johnson took advantage of the forum the lawyers offered to restate principles and policies guiding the administration with respect to both Viet Nam and Cyprus.

It is our duty to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to which Greece and Turkey belong, the President said, to help prevent its disruption by a war in Cyprus.

He said it also is our duty to help avoid large-scale loss of life among Cypriots and to uphold the principle of peaceful settlement of disputes.

In South Viet Nam, through three administrations, Johnson said, the United States has had one consistent aim—the observance of 1954 agreements guaranteeing the nation's independence.

"That independence," he said, "has been the consistent target of aggression and terror."

For 10 years, he said, our response to these attacks has followed a consistent pattern in which the Vietnamese bear basic responsibility for defending their own freedom and this country is committed to using its power to the extent needed to repel aggression.

Without mentioning names, the President said, "There are those who would have us depart from these tested principles" and those who would have us withdraw from the conflict. He said others are "eager to enlarge the conflict with reckless action which might risk the lives of millions, engulf much of Asia and threaten the peace of the world."

"The course we have chosen will require wisdom and endurance," Johnson said. "But let no doubt we have the resources and the will to follow this course as long as it may take."

Turning to the racial problem at home, Johnson said:

"No person whatever his grievance can be allowed to attack the right of every American to be secure in his home, his shop and in his streets."

After saying no part of America will be allowed to become a jungle by reason of the strong preying on the weak, Johnson added:

"Such acts must be stopped and punished—whether they occur in Mississippi or in New York."

Under the Constitution, he said, local authority has the main responsibility for civil peace—"There is no place in our federal system for a national police force."

"But where help is needed or federal law is violated, we shall be there," the President pledged.

He said Congress has passed "a compassionate and comprehensive civil rights law" with the support of more than two-getting into that girdle? Have dishpan hands? Patience, the push-and-spray people are working on it. Out of aerosol cans will come spray-on gloves for kitchen chores, a talcum dusting that eases ladies into girdles, or a spray touted as masher repellent.

In the research department, they also are talking of entire meals, which can be oozed forth by a gentle push on a few cans. And some of the experts cite an aerosol golf ball renewer.

Expansion into the field of medicines, even more than into foods, is the big goal the aerosol people see just ahead. The reason is development of new propellants. Those get the contents out without affecting or changing them without combining with them or strengthening or weakening their qualities.

The list is long. The Chemical Specialties Manufacturers Association cites local anesthetics for home use to aid sunburn, muscle spasms or sprains, and for doctors' offices for injections and first-aid treatment. Hospitals are trying out aerosol sprays to ease a mother's pain after childbirth, and Europe is experimenting with a spray anesthetic to relieve pains during childbirth.

Oxygen in aerosol containers is talked of for home use as first aid, such as in heart attacks—and some say for hangovers.

In the food division, Leonard G. Cannella of the aerosol division of Continental Can, says tomorrow's housewives will be able to push a button in some cans and have a whole meal. In addition to products already on the market, he says just ahead are ham spread, liver pate, shrimp spread, ground sea foods, scrambled eggs, premixed biscuits, pancake and waffle batters, and gourmet sauces.

Cannella says dentists now can use a spray-on novocain. The industry reports it now has 300 different products on the market with hundreds more being developed.

Some of the new items with which it hopes to catch your fancy are a spray-on dry vermouth for those who want only a whisper in their martinis; a bird repellent; dry spray lubricant to stop doors, windows and drawers from sticking; and for children an aerosol soap that can be pushed into various toy-

Coffelt in Appeal for Ballot Spot

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Attorney Kenneth Coffelt appealed to the state Supreme Court Wednesday a circuit court ruling that he had not obtained enough signatures to run as an independent candidate for attorney general in the general election.

The Pulaski Circuit Court upheld last week the refusal of Secretary of State Kelly Bryant to put the Little Rock attorney's name on the Nov. 3 ballot.

Coffelt paid a $20 filing fee to lodge the appeal, and said he would file briefs in the case with the Supreme Court Monday and request a speedy hearing. The court does not return from summer vacation until next month.

Coffelt had 75 signatures and Bryant said he needed 46,214. Coffelt cited an 1891 election requirement of only 50 signatures on a petition for an independent candidate. Bryant cited a 1955 law which states a person must get signatures of 15 per cent of the total vote in the last election to qualify. That would be 46,214.

Coffelt, an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1962, said the case hinged on what interpretation the Supreme Court wants to place on the laws involved.

Tragic Story of Berlin's Great Wall

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

BERLIN (AP) — It began three years ago today with a few strands of barbed wire being dragged across the streets of downtown Berlin.

Now the Red wall dividing the city is a massive, bloodstained death trap with a depressing air of permanence.

The Communist regime began to build the wall after more than three million East Germans had fled to the West. The refugees were pouring over the open frontier at the rate of 2,000 a day.

Then it was just a question of crossing the street or taking a subway ride.

The wall blocked 377 streets, and the subway stopped running between East and West. The escape hatch was closed.

The eight crossing points kept open for foreigners and West Germans are strongly guarded. Daring East Germans are still risking their lives to escape but now they come over mostly in ones or twos.

At least 53 have been killed and 34 injured in attempts to breach the wall. Another 52 died on the 800-mile frontier between East and West Germany.

Nearly 20,000 East Germans have escaped since the wall was built — an amazing number considering the formidable obstacles.

Whole rows of houses have been demolished to clear a field of fire for the guards. Apartment blocks on the border have been evacuated and windows bricked up.

Western experts estimate that $3.5 million worth of concrete and barbed wire have been used on the wall and on barricades around West Berlin. The waste of man-hours has been enormous.

West police have counted 232 trenches and dugouts and 165 watchtowers around the 101-mile city limits. In these more than 10,000 East German soldiers keep constant armed watch, with orders to shoot refugees.

West police say the Red Guards have used their weapons 333 times. West police have observed the arrest of 1,798 persons, apparently planning to escape.

Considerate Bandit Saves Victim's Life

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — A bandit paused during a $100,000 robbery to give the victim a heart pill. Police said the pill may have saved Herbert Kronish's life.

Kronish felt a stab of pain as three gunmen confronted him and his wife in their Beverly Hills home Wednesday. He said he asked one of the men for help — and the man got the pill from a medicine cabinet and slipped it into Kronish's mouth.

The couple were left tied as the trio escaped with cash and jewelry including a $60,000 diamond ring, Kronish said. He is part owner of the Beverly Hills Hotel.

used to work in the Western sectors has been overcome. Most West Berliners are prosperous. The immediate threat of a Communist takeover has receded.

But medical experts say the human misery caused by the wall is a heavy psychological burden on the Berliners. They call it "wall sickness" and say it is partly responsible for the high suicide rate on both sides of the wall.

GOP Front Closes Ranks Behind Barry

By WALTER R. MEARS

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Many Republican leaders saw today in Sen. Barry Goldwater's unity manifesto a stride toward party solidarity — but some cracks still showed on the foundation the GOP presidential nominee is out to build.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower sounded the unity keynote with a warm endorsement of Goldwater and vice presidential nominee William E. Miller, and a promise to do all he can to help elect them.

"Any uncertainties I may have felt as to the fitness, adequacy and quality of the political program they will offer to the United States in the 1964 campaign have been resolved," the former president said.

Goldwater acknowledged Eisenhower was among the architects of the detailed position paper he delivered Wednesday to a four-hour closed-door meeting of three dozen GOP governors and other party chieftains from 28 states.

The nominee and the former president talked for two hours a week ago at Eisenhower's farm in Gettysburg, Pa.

In a key passage of the unity declaration, Goldwater told the Republican leaders: "I seek the support of no extremist — of the left or the right."

Eisenhower, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and other party leaders joined in praising that statement.

"He has repudiated character assassins, vigilantes, Communists and any group such as the Ku Klux Klan that would attempt to control localities through terror, threat or other lawless means," the former president said.

Rockefeller said that repudiation, along with other Goldwater pledges, should help the ticket. But the New York governor said he would have added the John Birch Society to the disavowal list.

Goldwater told a news conference he has vigorously opposed "damaging, ridiculous and very stupid statements" by Robert Welch, the society's founder. But he said the society itself is on no subversive list.

Rockefeller said the Goldwater declaration should be "reassuring to Republicans from one end of the country to the other."

But the New York governor indicated all his reservations have not been erased. He reminded newsmen that he spent five months as a candidate for the nomination, campaigning against Goldwater and discussing the senator's views.

"I refer you to the record," he said.

"I believe in party unity but not at the expense of fundamental principles," the governor said.

China Baited Soviet for Soft Words

By JOHN T. WHEELER

SAIGON (AP) — Communist China accused the Soviet Union Tuesday of being too cautious in denouncing the United States for its recent reprisal attack on North Vietnamese patrol boat bases.

Shortly after Peking radio broadcast the rap at the Kremlin, U.S. Ambassador Maxwell Taylor told a news conference in Saigon the United States has adequate military resources to repel any Communist attack on South Viet Nam.

The official New China News Agency complained that statements by Soviet officials "did not refer to extending support to the just struggle of the North

Red China also said the Soviet Union's two leading newspapers, Pravda and Izvestia, were publishing American statements on Viet Nam without comment, even though the Communist regime in North Viet Nam had said the statements were "fabricated lies."

China said the North Vietnamese government sent an urgent message to the International Control Commission in Viet Nam accusing the United States of "continuing to provoke and sabotage North Viet Nam."

The control commission, consisting of representatives from India, Canada and Poland, has arrived in Hanoi, the capital of North Viet Nam, for on-the-spot investigations.

Warren's Report Due for Public

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Warren Commission, meeting in secret to consider how it will release the text of its Kennedy assassination report, considered a plan whereby contracts would be signed between the government and some information media.

These media would be supplied the text of the report somewhat in advance of other media on condition they "observe security" — not publish the report before the specified release date and then publish it in full.

The commission's chief counsel, J. Lee Rankin, briefed newsmen after the secret session Tuesday. The commission, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, is nearing the end of its long investigation into the assassination last Nov. 22 of President John F. Kennedy.

There have been reports that certain paperback book companies have had negotiations with the commission. So, a reporter asked: "How can a government commission, engaged on such a project of grave national importance, engage in contractual negotiations with private concerns?"

Said Rankin: "You will have to take this up with Mr. George Reedy at the White House."

Reedy is the White House press secretary. Rankin's response was the same when asked if the report shouldn't be released to everyone simultaneously, perhaps three or four days in advance, so everyone would get a chance to read the thick document before writing about it.

At the White House, Reedy told a newsmen: "As far as the White House is concerned, no plans have been made for the release of the report. We will give consideration to this matter at an appropriate time."

In Rochester, N.Y., Paul Miller, president of The Associated Press and president of the Gannett Newspapers, said when asked for comment: "The Associated Press is opposed and will continue to be opposed to anything other than simultaneous release of the report to all."

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Voting is the first duty of democracy," says President Johnson. And he wants every eligible American to register and vote this fall.

He made his appeal Tuesday at a White House meeting sponsored by the American Heritage Foundation. A bipartisan group of about 170 political, civic, business and government leaders attended.

Johnson said almost 35 percent of the electorate failed to vote four years ago and almost 40 million eligible men and women are not registered to vote this year.

"We preach the virtues of democracy abroad," Johnson said. "We must practice its duties at home."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed a bill that would increase pension benefits for war veterans or their widows.

Approval came Tuesday on a 388-0 roll-call vote. The bill now goes to the Senate.

The Veterans Administration estimates the measure would add $44 million to pensions in this fiscal year that ends next June 30 and mount in cost until it added $111 million to pensions in the 1969 fiscal year.

At the most, the increase could come to $35 a month. This would apply to a veteran with three dependents who has an income of less than $1,200 a year. His new maximum would be $110 a month.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill that would reduce meat imports has been sent to a Senate-House Conference Committee and backers of the measure fear it will stay right there and die quietly.

The measure which would cut meat imports by 30 percent had the backing of the livestock industry and was approved by the Senate on a 72-15 vote.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has stamped its final approval on the food stamp bill and sent it to President Johnson for his signature.

Final congressional action on the measure came Tuesday when the House accepted the Senate version, in which only minor changes had been made.

The bill expands and makes permanent a pilot program now in operation in 43 counties. Under the program, needy families get $10 worth of food stamps for $6 in cash. The stamps can be spent at grocery stores for almost any food item.

The plan is expected to cost $25 million the first year, $75 million the next, $100 million the third year and $200 million for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1967.

As for U.S. jets based in South Viet Nam, Taylor said they would stay there until they are no longer needed. But he said he knew of no plans for using them against the Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

Revetment Work on Mississippi

MISSISSIPPI REVETMENT WORK GETS UNDERWAY: The revetment construction plant of the Vicksburg Engineer District, composed of special mat handling barges, living quarters, shop and repair facilities — 19 barges in all — pushed by the steamboat Mateur, left, Vicksburg, Monday to begin the annual revetment construction season.

After hiring approximately 600 seasonal employees Monday, the revetment construction plant of the U. S. Army Engineer District, Vicksburg, began the 1964 season Tuesday at Goodrich Landing about 28 river miles north of Vicksburg, Miss., on the Louisiana side of the river.

The plant, which is a fleet of barges equipped with special machinery to place a flexible concrete covering on the Mississippi River's banks to prevent the current eating the bank away, will be treating 20 locations this year between Goodrich and New Orleans.

Between now and early November this plant will construct over 26 million square feet of concrete revetment at a total cost of about $13 million, according to Lt. Colonel James A. Betts, District Engineer.

This work is a part of the Corps of Engineers' program of stabilizing the position of the river channel. The work season is timed to coincide with the river's annual low water period.

This annual revetment construction work requires one of the largest hired labor forces employed by the Army Engineers. All personnel work directly for the Government and the construction equipment is owned by the Engineers. This is a departure from the usual practice of having construction work done by private contractors through competitive bidding.

The primary reason for this arrangement is that the revetment project requires much special equipment designed only for this specific task. Contractors do not have this equipment.

The mat laying barge, which is the heart of this construction plant, has been modified extensively since last revetment season to provide it with more floatation for the deep water revetment work below Baton Rouge. Also, other improvements were made which are expected to make the plant more efficient.

Concrete mats, from which the revetment mattress is fabricated, are manufactured by private contractors at Greenville, Miss., Delta Point, Vidalia, and St. Francisville, La. These mats, called "squares" because they are four feet wide and 25 feet long and have a surface area of 100 square feet, weigh about 3,300 pounds each. They are loaded on barges at the manufacturing plants, 1,000 tons to a barge, and towed to the revetment construction sites in groups of 9 to 15 barges.

The steamboat MATEUR is the prime mover for this unit. She moves the entire flotilla from one jobsite to another and assists the M-V ANDREWS in bringing construction materials from the yards to the plant. Demands for her services are such that she is constantly on the move. Several small boats help with minor chores.

This mammoth project requires careful coordination and planning and must be carried out with the thoroughness of an Army Commander in the field.

The right equipment, the men and the supplies must be at the right place at the right time. Superintendent Gordon Carter the measure came Tuesday when the House accepted the Senate version, in which only minor changes had been made.

Fall Booms While It Is Yet Summer

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Autumn plans are taking shape fast even while summer heat and drought plague much of the nation.

The big push is true of the garment makers and the steel mills, of the retail merchants and the food processors, of the aviation industry and the building suppliers.

At its half-way mark the year's third quarter already has turned in a better than usual report. For most businesses the summer slump has been relatively mild. For many the fall prospects look more promising than last year. Only a few still fret because the long economic expansion appears too good to be sound.

Steelmen talk resolutely of turning 1964 into a 120-million-ton year, a record. They base their hopes on a pickup in August orders, and the lengthening in delivery times for a basic product, heavy plates.

Auto men are just as confident, even if their minds are preoccupied now with labor negotiations nearing a climax. If the new models being readied prove popular with the customers, the auto industry hopes for another big sales year ahead, which would be a record in itself on top of three good years in a row.

The railroads, trucks and barges will be moving a huge farm crop to the food processors and the consumer markets.

Many farming sections are badly hit by drought. And the summer has offered an overflowing quota of hot weather to damage some crops. In these areas farmers are suffering.

But for the nation as a whole the farm production this year will be at a near record. The Agriculture Department says that for 59 major crops the total will be 111 per cent of the 1957-59 average. This is below last year's record 112 per cent, but ahead of 1961 and 1962.

Retailers are counting on shoppers spending as freely as ever this fall — with a couple of additional bonuses. First, there will be more disposable income after taxes to spend. Second, many customers are expected to upgrade their purchases a bit, buying higher quality and more expensive goods.

All regions of the nation won't share in this prosperity, if it materializes on schedule, but enough should to make the final months of the year better than last — with the growth perhaps as impressive as in the record first half of the year.

Helicopter Fleet Goes Into Battle

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

XA BA HAO, Viet Nam (AP) — One of the largest helicopter assaults of the South Viet Nam war was hurled today against a reported concentration of some 3,000 Communist Viet Cong in a jungle area.

Ninety-six Vietnamese and U.S. Army helicopters carried nearly 1,000 Vietnamese troops into the attack.

Minutes after the assault began, a young U.S. Army first lieutenant slumped dead at his controls.

A 50-caliber armor-piercing machinegun bullet had passed through the windshield as he helicopter was making a strafing pass and pierced his heart.

"He was the seventh pilot in our class of 50 to be killed in Viet Nam," Capt. Robert Estes of Anson, Maine, said.

Every available helicopter in the southern half of South Viet Nam was rounded up for the operation.

But the morning started poorly. The helicopters and the Vietnamese Air Force fighters that were to have blasted rockets into the assault zone had to turn away when heavy ground fog rolled in.

It was nearly 9:30 a.m. before the operation got under way again.

"It's nice for the Viet Cong this way," a crewman said. "Our spotter planes have given them fair warning. They've seen the sky black with choppers, and now they have a couple of hours to pack up at leisure."

In the jungle, scores of smoke bursts erupted, and tracers arched up at the helicopters. Machineguns in the fast-moving helicopters chattered, and rockets roared from their pads.

Troop-carrying helicopters touched down about six seconds, just long enough to unload their men. Only a few troops reported enemy contact.

"In this mess of jungle, there could be 2,000 or 20,000 Viet Cong hiding, and we'd never see them," an American paratroop adviser said angrily.

But Viet Cong anti-aircraft batteries continued to hammer away from under their canopy of foliage.

Returning to Saigon from the second lift, helicopters again drew murderous fire.

Near the same place Tuesday, the Viet Cong hit a government outpost, killing 11 defenders and capturing 19 rifles.

Estes, his face tense with anger, pushed his helicopter into a power dive straight at the spot where the Communist tracers were spurring, his four machineguns blazing away. He blasted four rockets into the jungle and pulled out at low altitude.

"Damn, that was a hairy maneuver," Estes said laughing.

Aussies Favored to Win Davis Cup

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Australia's Davis Cup tennis team, anchored by Roy Emerson, is heavily favored to defeat Chile in the American Zone finals opening Friday.

Two singles matches will be played Friday, doubles on Saturday and two more singles Sunday.

Emerson, the world's No. 1 ranked amateur, will play two singles matches, Capt. Harry Hopman of the Aussies has told local sponsors.

Emerson won the Wimbledon singles championship this year and the U.S. title last year.

Teamed with him are Fred Stolle, runnerup at Wimbledon the past two years; John Newcombe, Tony Roche and Owen Davidson.

Marines an Ever-Sure Combination

By BEM PRICE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Once upon a time, a U.S. Marine Corps squad was supposed to consist of 16 men and a publicity sergeant.

This was, of course, sour grapes from Army types.

President Harry S. Truman once accused the Marines of possessing a "propaganda machine that is almost equal to Stalin's."

Truman couldn't have done worse if he had criticized motherhood. He subsequently apologized for his "unfortunate choice of language."

In brief, it usually is about as safe to criticize Marines as it is to lift beagles by their ears.

Now, practically for the first time in living memory, there has been an independent critique of the Marines which has been published recently although in Hebrew.

It is addressed to the question: Are the Marines really as good as they say they are? While it is a natural question, it is one that would never occur to a Marine.

The critique was written by a lieutenant colonel named Shaked — first name unaviable — and appeared as a two-part series in the magazine "Ma'Arakhol," official publication of the Israeli general staff.

With fine impartiality, Lt. Col. Shaked, who was one of seven Israeli officers who spent a year observing the Marines, found 14 things to the Marines' credit and 14 which he considered were on the debit side.

In general, Shaked found that the high self-esteem with which the Marines customarily regard themselves was justified.

In passing, it might be noted that there is an affinity between the Israeli armed forces and the Marines which goes back over 15 years and may come as a surprise even to Shaked.

One of the best-kept secrets of those years is the fact that a few Marine Reservists helped train some of the Israeli commandos shortly after the nation was formed in 1948.

Anyhow, Shaked really found only two things he classed as really major faults. One involved officers and the other, night operations.

By Israeli standards, Shaked said, Marine officers were "too orthodox;" they preferred "the safe and easy course of doing everything by the book as taught at Marine Corps schools."

He added that the Marine officers were "unwilling to risk daring and unorthodox solutions."

Shaked also found that Marine junior officers were too young

Hollywood Has Its Own Style Rally

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Political rally, Hollywood style—

"You are cordially invited to join us at a barbecue honoring Miss Lucie Baines Johnson and United States Senator Birch Bayh, no solicitation of funds." The telegram was signed: Young Citizens for Johnson Committee — co-chairmen: Natalie Wood, Steve McQueen; en-and inexperienced in relation to their noncommissioned officers. He noted that only 25 per cent of the Marine's officers came up from the ranks whereas all officers in the Israeli army had served at least a year as an enlisted man.

The lieutenant colonel was critical of what he said was a lack of emphasis on operations at night and during bad weather. It is at these times, he said, that surprise attacks could be improvised and carried out.

These criticisms aside, Shaked characterized the Marines as a unique, outstanding outfit "without a parallel among the best armies in the world."

Shaked concluded that the Israeli armed forces could learn a great deal from the Marines.

tainment chairman, Vic Dan-

So I went. The scene of the barbecue was a sportswear maker's estate in the heart of Beverly Hills.

Arriving at the same time were Warren Beatty and Leslie Caron, who were perhaps expecting a smoke-filled room. They were startled to find photographers snapping them, and they promptly turned around and left.

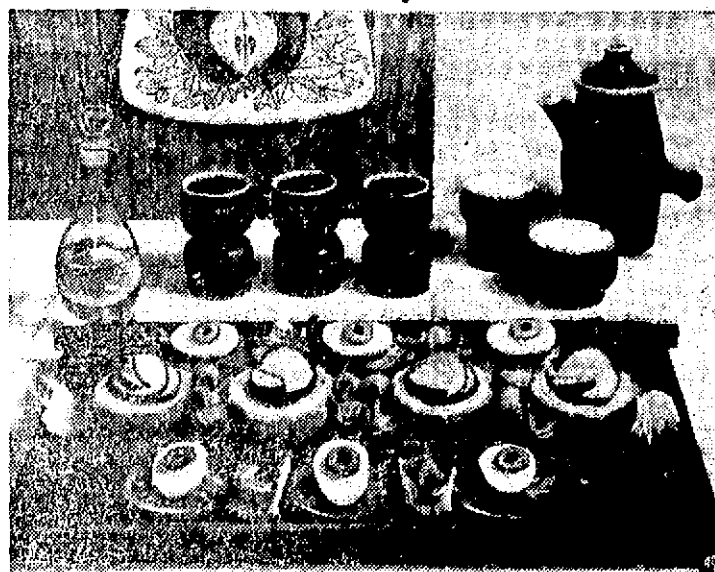

The big backyard was festive with tables placed around the Roman pool, in the middle of which was a fern-covered float with LBJ spelled out in daisies. A rope barrier was strung around the pool, perhaps out of politicians' wariness of total immersion.

The real action was on the tennis court, where the youthful crowd sipped beer or soft drinks, munched on ribs, chicken and cole slaw, and strained for glimpses of the most-famous Democrats. Lucie Baines obliged them by meeting the guests at each table. Perky in a white dress, her dark hair shielding one eye in what was once known as Veronica Lake style, she netted a blistered palm for her trouble.

The genial chairmen received visitors at a table. McQueen said he was strong for President Johnson but wouldn't be able to campaign much "because I'm representing our country in the European road races."

Miss Wood said she was proud

Politics Has Its Quaint Moments

By J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the marvels of politics is the way politicians can adjust to situations.

Take this Republican unity meeting today at Hershey, Pa. Barry Goldwater, the GOP presidential nominee, sent out the invitations to Republican governors and gubernatorial nominees.

And the host is Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania.

Just a few weeks ago, Scranton was doing his best to keep the presidential nomination away from Goldwater. He went about the country saying Goldwater should be rejected, that "we need in the White House a leader who thinks clearly, who doesn't shoot from the hip."

For another illustration of how a politician can rise above strong words, look at Goldwater himself.

"Having opposed civil rights until this year, let him make an issue of it. I'll just repeat back to him the thousands of words he has spoken."

"Lyndon Johnson is the biggest faker in the United States. He's the phoniest individual that ever came around."

Before the month was out, Goldwater and Johnson sat down in the White House and talked about the civil rights issue, how to keep from inflaming racial passions.

Goldwater told newsmen the atmosphere at the meeting was good, "we're good friends. We're old political friends."

One of the classic examples of a politician sidestepping a heat-of-the-campaign remark came in February 1941, when Wendell L. Willkie was questioned by a senate committee.

Willkie had run against Franklin D. Roosevelt for president the year before and had declared that, "On the basis of Roosevelt's past performance with pledges to the people, you may expect that we will be at war by April 1941, if he is elected."

Willkie was asked at the committee hearing, "Do you still agree that might be the case?" He replied:

"It might be. It was a bit of campaign oratory."

To cap this discussion of political flexibility, there is a story that former Rep. Brooks Hays of Arkansas tells.

A congressman's friend told him, "Jim, I've just come back from your district and Bill Jones is going to run against you."

"Well, I'm not surprised," the congressman said. "He is a dirty skunk and there is no good in him."

"And furthermore," the friend said, "Charlie Smith is going to help him run."

"They're two of a kind," the congressman reacted. "Scoundrels, both of them."

Then the friend broke down and admitted he had been teasing. He had made up the whole story, that, in fact, Bill and Charlie were both strong for the congressman's re-election.

Reproachfully, the congressman told his caller:

"Now look what you've done. You've made me say ugly things about two of the finest, sweetest characters who ever lived."

"DEAR ABBY"

REQUEST FOR A REPEAT

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I once read a letter in your column back in 1958 which I thought was so inspiring that I cut it out. It was signed, "VERY POOR" and I wish you would print it again because I read it every day and it has helped me more than medicine. God bless you.

FAITHFUL READER
Dear Faithful: Thank heaven for a good filing system. Here it is:

"Dear Abby: I've been reading the 'problems' sent to your column, and I hope you print this because it might do a lot of good. I'm in a charity hospital with arthritis, T.B. heart trouble, and I am gradually losing my eyesight. I'm only 38 but I can't remember being free from pain in 22 years. If I could wake up one morning feeling good again I wouldn't care if the neighbor's dogs barked, if their kids made noise, or even if my wife (if I had one) flirted with another man. What I am trying to say, Abby is, if a person can get up in the morning and go to work on his own two legs, he should get down on his knees and thank God, for without health, you have nothing. Even if you are rich."

"VERY POOR"

Dear Abby: My boy friend and I both work and have had a joint account for a year. We've been going steady for two years and plan to get married as soon as we can afford it. I'm 20 and he's 22. We're saving toward the things we'll need to set up housekeeping, at least that was the idea when we opened the account. My problem is that my boy friend wants to use the $1200 we have saved as a down payment on a sports car. He says it will be for both of us. He says he can get a real good deal on it, if he lets the guy know right away. I don't think he should buy it. He says if I loved him I wouldn't hesitate. I do love him, but I can't see us buying a sports car right now, but I can't put it into words why. Can you help me?

HESITATING
Dear Hesitating: I'll "put it into words" for you. "Look, Dear, our joint savings are to start a home. YOU may want a vine-covered sports car, but I don't. Even though your happiness is important to me, our life together had better start off right, or not at all." (P.S. If you're wise, you'll take a long, hard, second look at this fellow. He sounds immature and self-centered to me.)

Confidential To "Meek and Mild": Here is the quote you were searching for to illustrate how after maturity, you achieved a better relationship with your father even though he neglected you during your boyhood. "He drew a circle that shut me out—
Heretic, rebel, a thing to flout.
But Love and I had the wit to win:
We drew a circle that took him in."

Sukarno - He Rides Under Live Bomb

By EDWIN Q. WHITE

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Troops with unheated bayonets took up positions along a busy Jakarta street. Sirens sounded and eight motorcycle police, four armored cars and nine jeeps filled with guards swept past.

In the center of the convoy was the long, black limousine carrying the president of Indonesia.

An American woman tourist looked on slightly wide-eyed, then put down her orange soda and said:
"Tell me, just how popular is this President Sukarno?"
The question is a difficult one. At 63, Sukarno, lifetime president of this island country, has survived five assassination attempts since 1957. The bustling city of Jakarta is a place of wide-eyed unpopularity.

After an attempt on his life in May 1962, Sukarno formed the Tjakarabirawa regiment, an elite guard of more than 2,000 men whose sole task is to protect him. This red-beret guard is tough.

Like all leaders, Sukarno is the possible target of an assassin, but there is no evidence to suggest the heavy security indicates unrest that could lead to revolts or that it is even a sign of widespread unpopularity. While there are those who oppose Sukarno and the so-called guided democracy that gives him almost unrestricted powers, there is no significant open opposition. Any criticism of Sukarno is voiced guardedly and then only to persons in whom the critics have complete trust. Some who have been more forthright are no longer in this country, or are in jail.

No newspaper attacks the president personally. The government-run radio hails his policies in words and music. Listening to nearby Radio Malaysia is forbidden. Books critical of Sukarno have been burned or barred. Some American publications are banned.

Indonesia's 10 legal political parties, ranging from Communist to nationalist to religious, may bicker among themselves but they never assail the president or his actions.

The Parliament is appointed. The last elections were held in 1955.

By utilizing fully his shrewd sense of balance and timing, Sukarno has been able to play off the country's major strengths against each other and has come out on top.

He is the only president Indonesia has had since independence was declared in 1945.

Outwardly and officially then, the answer to the lady's question is that Sukarno is popular. For all those voices abroad who denounce him as a demagogue or dictator, an expansionist and aggressor, there are Indonesians here who speak of him in terms of near worship.

Brandon in Win Over Tucker

By WICK TEMPLE
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Adman Jim Brandon moved up from the House to the Senate and a former state senator won his job back Tuesday in Arkansas' runoff Democratic primary election.

Brandon, 32-year-old Little Rock advertising executive, defeated Everett Tucker 12,132 to 9,517 in 15th District race in the climax to one of the most heated campaigns of this quiet Arkansas political summer.

Guy (Mutt) Jones of Conway won his rematch with state Sen. Graham Nixon, who beat Jones four years ago. With complete returns from the four counties in the 14th District, Jones had 7,778 votes to 5,367 for Nixon.

State Sen. Cecil McNeil of Rector won a second term, beating former Clay County Sheriff Leon Beaton 5,673 to 5,407 in the 23rd District.

Prosecutor David Whittington of Hot Springs held his job in a 4,693 to 3,838 victory over Richard Hobbs, a Hot Springs attorney. They duelled in the 18th Judicial Circuit which is made up of only Garland County.

A suit is pending in the Arkansas Supreme Court to declare unconstitutional a law which made Garland a judicial circuit to itself. The suit could conceivably affect the prosecutor's race if the law is thrown out by the court this fall.

The three Senate races, the prosecutor's battle, and nine runoffs for state representative headlined the runoff election ticket. The only statewide race was decided in the first primary July 28 when Gov. Orval E. Faubus won nomination to a sixth term by beating three opponents.

Reps. Oren Harris and E. C. Gathings, D - Ark., both beat Democratic opponents in the first primary. No other state or congressional office holders were opposed in the primary.

The Brandon-Tucker race for the Senate built up as much interest in Little Rock as did the governor's race.

Tucker, former president of the Little Rock School Board, guided the school district through the last years of the city's racial crisis and was directly responsible for opening the high schools in 1958 on a basis of gradual desegregation.

Then in the campaign, Tucker accused Brandon, who has served two terms in the Arkansas House, of being sympathetic with integrationist causes. Tucker called himself a segregationist.

John Yancey, who was eliminated from the race in the first primary in which Brandon led the ticket, injected himself into the runoff campaign and accused Tucker of foul play in bringing up the race issue. Tucker said he had not brought it up — that Brandon had first mentioned it in the first primary campaign.

The 15th District seat was vacated by the death of Sen. Ellis Fagan last year.

The results in the runoffs for state representative:

BENTON: Ivan Rose beat Charles Brown 2,434 to 2,280 with 44 of 45 precincts reported for the seat given up by Rep. Hardy Croxon.

CALHOUN: Rep. R. L. Goodwin beat B. M. Ritchie 1,375 to 1,197.

CLARK: Rep. Jerry Thomas beat Wayne V. Roberson 1,562 to 1,042.

GREENE: Rep. Claude Collier beat former Rep. Tony McDonald 3,644 to 2,736.

INDEPENDENCE: Rep. Virgil Butler beat Donnie Bryant 2,786 to 2,736.

10 Delegates Named by State

LITTLE ROCK (AP) A Main net delegate and two alternates to the Arkansas delegation to the National Democratic Convention were named Tuesday by party chairman Leon Catlett. Dr. James M. Kolb Sr. of Clarksville was named a delegate, replacing Dr. G. C. Johnson Jr., of Lake Village, who withdrew because of press of other duties.

Mrs. Maupin Cummings of Fayetteville and H. Allan Dishongh of Little Rock were named alternate delegates, replacing Conway County Sheriff Marlin Hawkins of Morrilton and Little Rock Traffic Judge John L. Sullivan.

THE FOURFLUSHER

By Ed Lacy
Deliver me from fourflushers and grandstanders!

We were sitting in Doc's old car, me and Doc in the front seat, this flashy-dressed punk, Claude, in the backseat, working a nail file as if he was about to enter a beauty contest instead of robbing the bank on the corner.

Pointing to where the street was torn up Doc said, "Every morning at 11 a.m. an armored car makes a money delivery. Because the street is cut up, they can't stop in front of the bank as usual. See the narrow side street beside the bank?"

I nodded. Claude was too busy with his nails to look. It was a short block running down a hill, lined with parked cars. "Okay," Doc went on, "it's too narrow for the armored truck to double park, so they've been parking at the bottom of the hill and just around the corner. That means when the two guards start walking up to the bank, they're out of sight of the guard seated in the truck. The water main will be repaired by Friday, so we have to take them tomorrow. Now listen: before 9 a.m. I'll park my car on the side street, near the bottom of the hill. At 9:30 we'll meet at a nearby cafeteria. At 10 a.m. Claude leaves to steal a panel truck. At 10:40 I'll drive my car away and Claude backs his truck into the empty space."

"I have a florist's pick-up already staked out," Claude said. Doc nodded at me. "At 10:45 you'll join Claude in the panel truck. I'll be along by 10:50 with guns and masks. Claude stays at the wheel. At 11 a.m. as the guards start up the hill, you and I simply open the rear doors of the panel truck, herd the guards inside and Claude takes off. Be over in a few seconds. We tie the guards with tape while Claude drives to this empty lot where my car will be parked. We leave the guards in the truck and drive off. I figure the score will be $20,000 or higher. Like it?"

I looked at Doc with pure admiration. It takes brains to work out a split second job. Doc pointed to his watch and then toward the hill. At 11 a.m. on the nose, two beefy guards came walking by, each carrying two sacks of money on their shoulders. Doc grinned. "Hope they're carrying two sacks each tomorrow, no chance to go for their rods. Come on, I'll show you the cafeteria where we'll meet."

Doc drove to a large cafeteria on the next street and we went in for coffee and doughnuts. This Claude is such a show-off that when it came time to pay he only had a $50 bill. The cashier didn't have change so Claude turned to me, said, "Pay my 20-cent tab."

When we dropped him off at his room I told Doc, "A phony flashing a big bill! Why do we need Claude?"

Doc gave me a worried look. It upset him to have friction between the guys he worked with. He put a reassuring hand on my arm.

"Just cool off a second." "I ain't even hot," I said. "Anybody can see that Claude's a phony. So why do we put up with him? He'll get us into a lot of trouble because he won't handle the job the way it should be handled."

I was hotter than I said. "He's tops at picking up a car and a great wheel man. We handle the guns, he does the driving. Has to be a three-man job," Doc said.

The next morning we were in the cafeteria at 9:30, had coffee and toast. At 9:50, as we were leaving, I asked Claude, "Well, you freeloading again?" "Stop it, you cheap jerk," he said, tossing two dimes and his check before the cashier, then paying for my tab with another two-bits, making a big thing of it.

I walked around nervously, way I am before any job. At 10:45 I strolled down to where the panel truck should have been. Doc was still in his car, glancing at his watch. At 10:55, Doc motioned for me to get in, growled, "Something's happened to Claude, too late now to pull the deal!"

At 11 a.m. the guards passed us, loaded with money sacks and Doc groaned. It would have been such a soft touch. We drove off at 11:06 and at the top of the hill saw the panel truck coming. Claude stuck his head out. Doc stopped, asked, "What went wrong?"

"I couldn't get a bus or cab to where the truck was, had to walk. I only had $50 bill on me and nobody would change it."

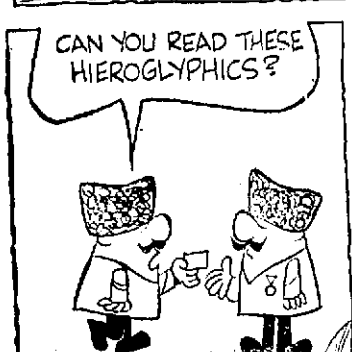

Man, deliver me from dumb grandstanders!

Pork Real Bargain at the Market

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pork is vying for the spotlight at the nation's groceries this weekend after standing in the shadow of beef for many months.

Hams and loin roasts are among the widespread features at special prices. Also featured are spareribs, chops and pork steaks.

Beef still is rated a best buy at many markets, however, despite pork competition and despite a gentle rise in some beef retail prices.

Rib roasts are offered at 65 cents a pound at the Northeastern outlets of one big chain.

For winged protein, turkeys, frying chickens and baking hens are common features.

Fresh vegetable supplies have been affected by hot, dry weather in Western growing areas, but no bad shortages or sharp price jumps have been reported.

Among the general features are green beans, carrots, celery, eggplant, peppers, potatoes, tomatoes, fresh corn and lettuce.

Fruit features include apples, bananas, cantaloupes, grapes, honeydews, nectarines, peaches and watermelons.

Pentagon in Retort to Barry Blast

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and the Pentagon have fired back at Sen. Barry Goldwater's charge that the Administration is depleting the "arsenal for the defense of freedom."

The Defense Department described as "totally false" Goldwater's statement that the U.S. capacity to deliver nuclear weapons may be reduced by 90 per cent in the next decade.

And President Johnson, addressing the same audience that heard Goldwater's charge — the members of the National Association of Counties — said:

"Our resources are committed, our sacrifices are made, our vigil is maintained so that there shall be no win for aggression in our times."

In his speech Monday, Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee, said the United States faces the prospect of going into the 1970s without a single new manned bomber.

"Under our present defense leadership, with its utter disregard for new weapons, our deliverable nuclear capacity may be cut down by 90 per cent in the next decade," Goldwater asserted, unless present plans are changed.

Not so, the Pentagon said Tuesday night through Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester.

Sylvester's statement said Goldwater's charge was "not only without foundation but contrary to the facts."

"The facts are," the statement said, "that in 1970 we will have a capability to deliver on target 2½ times as many warheads as we had in 1961 and a greater number than we have today."

A Goldwater speechwriter, Karl Hess, said Goldwater's forecast was based on public information about bombers, missiles and their payloads.

"You take what we've got and you take what we're going to have and that is the result," said Hess. He said no classified information had been used.

UN Keeps Alert on Cyprus

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council went on a standby alert today after issuing an appeal aimed at stopping Turkey's jet flights over Cyprus and averting attacks by Greek Cypriots on the island's Turkish minority.

Council President Sivert A. Nielsen of Norway made the appeal Tuesday night after another emergency council session to deal with a complaint by Cyprus that Turkey violated the ceasefire by an air attack Monday on the village of Polis.

Turkey denied that its planes fired during Monday's flight. It accused Cyprus of trying to scuttle efforts to restore peace on the Mediterranean island.

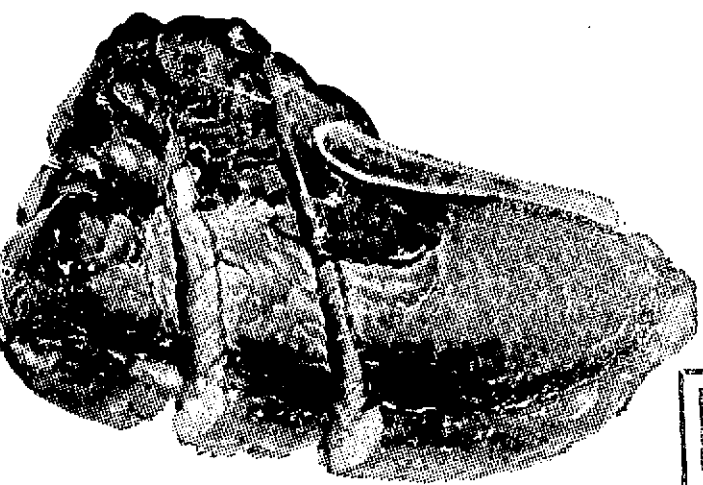

When the 11-nation council wound up the debate Tuesday night, Nielsen suspended the meeting instead of adjourning, so that it could resume on short notice if trouble broke out again.

The new council appeal was proposed by Arsene Assouan Usher of the Ivory Coast.

It asked "all governments to stop all flights over Cyprus that violate its sovereignty" and requested that the U.N. force in Cyprus "reinforce its units in the zone of the recent military operations so as to insure the safety of the inhabitants."

The first part was directed at Turkey, which has said it would continue scouting flights over Cyprus until Greek Cypriot forces pull back from positions won in their drive into Turkish Cypriot holdings last week. The second part was intended to put U.N. troops in a position to protect Turkish Cypriots.

July Sets High Sales for Nation

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The summer finds retailers fighting a see-saw battle to set record sales. Bankers, on the other hand, keep reporting that deposits are rising to successive highs.

But in July people bought more autos than in June. This pushed the vital sector of retail sales, durable goods, up by 2 per cent. This, says the Commerce Department in a preliminary guess, makes July the record month for sales in general.

The department had said the same thing about June in its preliminary survey. But that record didn't hold for long. Later figures dropped June behind May, leaving the earlier month still the champ.

At the same time consumers were buying more cars and other goods, both hard and soft, they weren't neglecting their bank accounts.

The National Association of Mutual Savings Banks reports the nation's 507 mutual savings banks had a total of $46.5 billion deposits in July, compared with $42.7 billion a year earlier.

This made July the record month. But the banks also had another record. The rise in deposits last month was $275 million, to top the previous high of a $158 million increase in July 1962. This summer's advance was more than twice that of July 1963, when deposit totals rose by $122 million.

The association says that rising deposits have been almost continuous during the five months since the federal income tax cut took effect. The bankers say people apparently are saving up to half of the tax cut.

Steadily rising totals of personal income, from wages and salaries, interest, rent collections, as well as tax breaks, have been enough to keep both the banks and the stores reasonably happy.

The Commerce Department's latest estimates put retail sales in May at $21.8 billion, and in June at $21.7 billion. It's first guess for July is $21.9 billion. If that holds, the midsummer month will be the champ.

Economists watch the durable goods sector closely because that is the most volatile. The nondurables, such as food and clothing and gasoline, leave the consumer with less discretion. He spends nearly the same on these when personal incomes are leveling off as he does when they are rising.

But when the consumer buys the big-ticket items, the cars and appliances, it may be because he feels confident of being able to swing the payments, or feels flush and expansive. It's a clue to how long the present business expansion may last.

Bob Kennedy to Run for Senate Seat

NEW YORK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has decided to enter the New York race for U.S. senator, the New York Times said today.

Similar reports have been printed or broadcast by other news media, including the New York Journal-American, the Columbia Broadcasting System and the American Broadcasting Co.

The Times said it learned Tuesday night that Kennedy had told relatives and a few close friends of his decision.

Kennedy expects to make a formal declaration of his candidacy next week and in all probability announce at the same time his resignation as attorney general, the story added. The Times said an authorita-

Turbulent Weather Gone

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The turbulent weather that crossed Arkansas Tuesday will end as a cold front that passed through the state moves to the Gulf Coast, the U.S. Weather Bureau said today.

The forecast calls for some shower activity in the extreme south portion today, clear to partly cloudy for the remainder of the state with much cooler temperatures.

Maximum temperatures Tuesday preceding passage of the front ranged from 105 at Little Rock to 91 at Memphis. Overnight minimum temperatures ranged from 53 at Harrison to 76 at Texarkana.

The bureau said maximum daytime temperatures today and Thursday would range from the upper 70s to upper 80s. Low readings ranging from the mid 50s to mid 60s were predicted.

Rain, small hail, high winds and lightning Tuesday knocked out some utility service and caused other minor damage around the state.

A spokesman for Arkansas Power & Light Co. reported that at one time as many as 12,000 customers were without service at Little Rock. He added that the Kennedy camp anticipates an endorsement from New York City Mayor Robert F. Wagner within the next few days.

The story said Kennedy's intentions became known after a day in which the campaign to get him the Democratic nomination "gathered momentum in all sections of the state."

Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating of Rochester is expected to run for re-election. He has the support of his party's state organization, but he said he hasn't made up his mind.

Kennedy said here Monday that he would not consider running for senator without "express approval" by Wagner, the state's most influential Democrat.

That has been the last public word from Kennedy on the subject.

Wagner, at a news conference Tuesday said to his position of speaking highly of Kennedy as a possible senate nominee without making an outright endorsement.

Kennedy's eligibility to run for senator from New York has been challenged in some quarters. But his backers contend that, under the U.S. Constitution, he would be eligible if he established a residence in the state by election day.

Lord of the Manor Is an Empty Title

By Milton Marmer
LONDON (AP) — Opportunity knocks: you too can become a lord of the manor. And all by the simple procedure of spending about $2,000—and outbidding other aspirants.

Eleven titles are going under the auctioneer's hammer at the Moot Hall, Colchester, Sept. 30. The title lord of the manor goes back a thousand years or more. The ones on sale are comparatively new. They date from the 15th, 16th or 17th centuries.

The titles were bought up by Joseph Beaumont, grandfather of the present owner. Titles were a hobby of his. He bought more than 80 in Essex, Suffolk and Norfolk counties. His son bought more. Much of the collection has already been sold.

Let anyone become confused the title lord of the manor has nothing to do with a peerage. It has almost no privileges connected with it. Further, there is no real property involved. Unless you already have a title you are still going to be called mister.

In olden days, before the commoners came into Parliament and took rights unto themselves, the title meant lords of the manor could take back land for want of an heir. This fine practice was called escheat.

Manor lords could fine tenants whose daughters married outside the manor. The manor was not only the house, but also the estate around it where the serfs labored under the lord.

The manor lord could also exercise droit de seigneur—right of the lord to enjoy the first pleasures of the bridal bed of all marriages involving serfs within his manor.

These rights are gone forever, but the title still yields the freedom of grazing sheep on common lands. Any commoner today has the same right, however.

The lord of the manor also is a true esquire and can write "Esq." after his name. A commoner can gain this courtesy simply by receiving a bill from his tailor.

The titles up for sale are well-documented. They include court rolls, surveys, court books, rentals and minute books which give a detailed account of their past histories.

C. M. Stanord and Son is selling the titles on behalf of J. L. Beaumont of Coggeshall, Essex.

They are the perfect gift—for someone who has everything.

Service Pay Bill Signed by Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed into law today a bill that will send fatter pay checks to almost every American serviceman by the first of next month.

All of them will share in the 207-million pay raise except draftees and lowest-ranking enlisted men. For most, it will be the second pay raise in 11 months.

The bill give a 2.5 per cent increase to all officers and enlisted men with more than two years of service and an 8.5 per cent increase to all officers with less than two years of service.

Year 'Round Favorite-- Meat Loaf

Appetizingly good—either hot or cold—brown and juicy meat loaf is a sure mealtime favorite whenever, wherever it is served. Brimming with the good flavor of ground beef, this meat loaf truly rates its best-ever label. Onion, salt and pepper are the simple seasoning accents for the beef, and fine dry bread crumbs keep the texture light. Evaporated milk, used just as it pours from the can, is the secret of the juicy moistness. This double-rich milk deftly binds the ingredients and helps seal in natural juices during baking. Neatly sliceable, either hot or cold, this is

Best-Ever Meat Loaf
2 pounds ground chuck 1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs 1 tall can evaporated milk
1/2 cup finely chopped onion (1 1/2 cups)
2 teaspoons salt

Mix all ingredients lightly but thoroughly. Press lightly into loaf pan or dish (8 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 3 inches), smoothing top. Bake in preheated moderate oven (350° F.) for 1 1/2 hours. Cool 5 to 10 minutes before removing from pan. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Life in Arkansas

Many years ago Parker Dennison drew a paycheck from Starley White for work in his drugstore at Stuttgart. It was for $11.40. Dennison has since moved to Milwaukee, Wis., and as a busy druggist, forgotten all about the check.

That is until a few days ago when his daughter Sandra, who remained in Stuttgart, drew her first check for working for White.

It was also for $11.40.

John Jeern, an 84-year-old veteran of the Spanish American War, describes himself as a "tired loafer," but he isn't too tired to raise his own smoking tobacco at Jonesboro.

"Yeh, lots of folks stop by here and ask about my tobacco," Jeern says. "Most of them have never seen it growing before."

Jeern says this year's crop is his largest. The loft of his combination garage, barn and storage room is almost filled with drying stalks.

Jeern doesn't actually cure his tobacco, he hangs it by the stalk and lets it dry, then puts it in a barrel and presses it until it is ripe. Then he crushes it to put in his pipe.

"I chew a little of it," he grins, "but mostly I use it for smoking."

Mrs. Coy Claxton of Batesville claims no honors as a pistol marksman, but nothing else was handy when she came across a 56-inch timber rattlesnake the other day.

She found the snake on the way to the mail box, returned to the house and got the pistol, used the mail box for a prop and fired away.

The first shot found its mark, but Mrs. Claxton continued to blaze away. All but the first bullet missed.

The snake had nine rattlers and a button.

W. H. Quinn of Jonesboro has a strange hobby for a man in his 60s. He designs, builds and rides unicycles—those one-wheeled contraptions familiar to circus-goers.

Quinn had ridden motorcycles for 30 years before he learned to handle a unicycle—at age 61.

Renewal Is Spreading to Farms

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Farmers Union has been informed that rural homes are already under construction in Little River County as part of a federal-state rural renewal program.

Undersecretary of Agriculture John Baker said a majority of the improvements planned for the county under the program are still in the paper work stage.

The county is one of very few in the nation eligible for the program, Arkansas being one of a few to approve matching funds for it.

Baker said, "The eyes of the country and the world are on Little River County." He added that the rural renewal program is an example of what individuals working with government can do.

Arkansas was the first state to pass a rural renewal enabling law making it possible for rural areas to get federal loans, he said. The program is not limited to Little River County, but farmers in that area have taken the initiative, he added. "Loans are being made to in-

Winthrop to Edge Faubus He Believes

By WICK TEMPLE
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — If Arkansas voters were going to the polls today to choose a governor, Winthrop Rockefeller is confident he would be their man.

"It's not wise to talk of percentages," he said Monday night, "but I think I would win if the election were held today. I hope to strengthen the position I now have."

Rockefeller said he holds a definite edge over Gov. Orval E. Faubus in the campaign toward the Nov. 3 general election.

The Republican gubernatorial candidate said his "recognition rating"—the number of potential voters who at least recognize his name—is only 10 to 12 per cent less than Faubus' recognition rating.

He said polls confirmed this. Rockefeller said he is recognized at least by name by 80 to 85 per cent of Arkansas voters. Rockefeller was interviewed dividual farmers, cooperative groups of farmers and small businessmen for the development of almost everything."

Monday night on the "Face Your State" program, taped to be broadcast Wednesday night over Little Rock Television Station KTHV.

Rockefeller was asked if he thought he could get a program through a Democratic legislature. "They (legislators) are representatives of all the people," he said. "I think they will accept sound programs."

Asked if he would revamp the lineup of state boards and commissions, Rockefeller said he might want to strengthen a few boards but that the commissioners and board members generally "are dedicated citizens anxious to do their best to the credit of their agency."

He also was asked if he would cut down the number of state employees. "I hope our government could be run more efficiently," Rockefeller said. But he added that he planned no housecleaning.

Asked if he would hire state employees without regard to race, Rockefeller said, "That is a philosophy I would accept."

That question came after Rockefeller had outlined again his position on civil rights.

He said he believes in equal opportunity for all people, but also believes in responsibilities as well as rights. He said the aspect of responsibilities "may be forgotten" in some cases and "may possibly be the cause of some of our misunderstanding."

Rockefeller said he would have voted against the civil rights bill because "The language is dangerous" and the power delegated to certain government officials is out of proportion.

Asked about Faubus' position that the governor is the man to "stabilize" the state in the face of the civil rights law, Rockefeller said:

"Faubus has a capacity for finding fear or possible dangers in the closet. You can play that game forever. Each time he starts the scare technique again, just look at his record."

Rockefeller said he stood for law enforcement in civil rights issues. He said he also believes in identifying racial problems before they become critical and getting the best leadership on both sides to work them out locally.

He reaffirmed his support of Sen. Barry Goldwater as the GOP presidential candidate and said "It will be amusing to see if Faubus espouses Mr. Goldwater or whether he recognizes his oath to the Democratic Party."

"I can subscribe to Goldwater's philosophies more easily than Faubus can," Rockefeller said.

Of Faubus' criticism of him as a rich man candidate, Rockefeller said "I am seeking nothing in the job except to be of service. Criticism because one has wealth is a mystery to me."

The president of the United States is addressed as Mr. President.
